(4 pts) Name:

(1 pt) At the beginning of his article, what game does Sniderman use as an example of breaking unwritten rules, and what rule does he propose breaking?

(1 pt) How do dolphins play water polo?

(1 pt) What game does Sniderman delve into his extensive personal experience with the “game-within-a-game” of courtesy and sportsmanship?

(1 pt) What children’s game does he bring up as often tricking players by blurring the line between being “inside” and “outside” the game?

(2 pts) Explain the difference between operational, foundational, behavioral, and advisory rules.

(1 pt) According to the writer Aquarius, how do the Spanish resolve disputes in card games?

(1 pt) According to Parlett, “I’d like to think the main reason why I don’t play games very successfully is that I’m too much of a ______________.”