Gresham Lab Conference Policy

If you want to go to a conference you must:

- Submit an abstract and request an oral presentation
- Identify all possible sources of support (the meeting, department, university, GSA, microphone runner)

The lab can support the following:

- Travel (flight, train, bus)
- Registration
- Accommodation

The lab cannot support:

- meals that are not part of the conference registration
- taxi fares

Before registering for a conference talk to David about why you want to go, who will be there, what you plan to do, how it will be funded and what the expected cost for the lab will be.
