Pech Pele

--brief description of human remains found in 1983 and 1996. In addition to bones, several grave goods and nails were found with the body uncovered in 1996. A piece of ceramic dated between the 6th-8th centuries was found to the left of the skull. Later published by Lacombe in DAHP 1998.