Cancelling batch jobs at Prince
HPC Policies

(Tip: click "<<" at bottom left to close Confluence sidebar)

Running jobs on the Prince Cluster

Accessing the Prince Cluster
- From Windows workstation
- From Mac workstation

Software and Environment Module

Job script and resource request
- Introduction to job scheduling
- Submitting jobs with sbatch
- Requesting resources
- Using computing nodes interactively

Monitoring batch jobs
- Monitoring batch jobs - squeue
What is running and where?
slurmtop

Canceling your jobs

Compiling your own software

Putting all pieces together

An Amber example

A R example

Summary

To kill a running job, or remove a queued job from the queue, use `scancel`:

```bash
$ scancel jobid
```

To cancel ALL of your jobs:

```bash
$ scancel -u NetID
```