Brief notice by one of the members concerning the discovery of several tombs near the church. A school teacher, M. Coly, discovered them in a street that currently sits over the ancient cemetery.