Lab philosophy

The goal of our lab is to tackle fundamental questions in evolution, gene expression regulation and cell growth control.

Our aim is to advance our understanding of fundamental principles of biological systems to ultimately lead to improvements in human health.