Volume 45, Number 4 (2017)

“Does it buzz?”: Image and Text in Edward Lear’s Limericks
Constance W. Hassett

Ruskin, Darwin, and Looking Beneath Surfaces
Katelin Krieg

Poetry and Parallax in Mary Somerville’s On the Connexion of the Physical Sciences
Michelle Boswell

Precarious Lives: Christina Rossetti and the Form of Likeness
Ronjaunee Chatterjee

Critical Names Matter: “Currer Bell,” “George Eliot,” and “Mrs. Gaskell”
Daun Jung

The Persistence of the Brahmin Priests in Wilkie Collins’s The Moonstone
Niketa G. Narayan

The Sensational Victorian Nursery: Mrs Henry Wood’s Parenting Advice
Tamara Silvia Wagner

Kipling’s Bestiary
Parama Roy

H. G. Wells, Geology, and the Ruins of Time
David Shackleton

The Picturesque, Portraiture, and the Manor House: The Social Functions of Art in Mary Augusta Ward’s Marcella
Julie Codell